

Our Chairman of AVS Uganda Chapter is Paul Gudoï who was born in Bulambuli District, of which, Muyembe is a sub county in eastern part of the country. Paul is married and wedded in church with four children and also supports five others that belong to his relatives whom he has motivated to higher levels. Paul's father died when he was in primary one and he was raised by his mother single handedly and yet she was just a peasant farmer. Paul's mother is still alive and in her seventies. Paul is a trained teacher, holder of a bachelor's degree in education, post graduate diploma in human resource management, certificate in educational leadership and management and is currently a secondary school head teacher of Buhugu secondary school, in Sironko district in Eastern Uganda. Paul's passion is to help people who may be experiencing or undergoing similar challenges like those he went through. Honesty, integrity and compassion for others is Paul's goal.
